The CMA program has four objectives:

Objectives

- To establish management accounting as a recognized profession by identifying the role of the management accountant and financial manager, the underlying body of knowledge, and course of study by which such knowledge is acquired;
- To encourage higher educational standards in the management accounting field;
- To establish an objective measure of an individual's knowledge and competence in the field of management accounting; and
- To encourage continued professional development by management accountants.

The CMA (Certified Management Accountant) is the advanced professional certification specifically designed to measure the accounting and financial management skills that drive business performance. Achieving the CMA credential demonstrates your mastery of financial planning, analysis, control, and decision support, as well as professional ethics.

CMA Requirements:

To be Certified as CMA, candidates must fulfill both an education requirement and an experience requirement in addition to passing the exam. These are listed below:

Requirements include:

Membership in IMA®. If you are not already a member, Join IMA now.

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university or an equivalent degree as determined by an independent evaluation agency. Please reference the Education Qualification Section of the CMA Handbook.
- Two continuous years of professional experience in management accounting or financial management. Please reference the Experience Qualification section of the CMA Handbook.
- Entrance into the CMA program. •
- Completion of Part 1 and Part 2 of the CMA exam.
